Knowledge cafés on national human rights follow-up systems and processes:

Highlighting and demystifying the issue

In the context of the first Human Rights Council intersessional panel discussion on promoting international cooperation to support national human rights follow-up systems and processes to be held on 9 November from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. in Room XX, the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) is pleased to invite you to a series of knowledge cafés to:

- Enable States and other stakeholders to share practices on the main constituting elements of national follow-up systems and processes in an informal environment; and
- Learn more in details how OHCHR can support States in establishing or strengthening their follow-up systems and processes.

When: Thursday 10 November 2016 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Where: Room XX before breaking into groups (E. 3002, E. 3004, E. 3006, E. 3014, and E. 3016)

Registration: please send an email with your details to UPRStates@ohchr.org by 8 November noon

These participative knowledge cafés are open to everyone, States and civil society alike.*

For additional background information, please see OHCHR's leaflet on international cooperation & national human rights follow-up systems and processes.
