The CED consists of 10 members, serving in their personal capacity. For the details about all CED members, see:
http://www.ohchr.org/EN/HRBodies/CED/Pages/Members.aspx

Venue of the session
The 6th session of CED will take place in Geneva, Palais des Nations, room XII.

States parties to be examined
CED will examine the reports and country situations in the following States parties during its 6th session: Germany and The Netherlands.

CED may also adopt list of issues on the following States parties: Belgium and Paraguay.

Documentation
The reports of the States parties, the provisional agenda (CED/C/6/1) and other documents pertaining to the session are posted on the OHCHR website at:
http://www.ohchr.org/EN/HRBodies/CED/Pages/Session6.aspx

Adoption of Concluding Observations and other documents
Following the consideration of the States parties' reports during the 6th session, CED will, in a closed meeting, adopt Concluding Observations that will assist the States parties concerned in the implementation of the Convention. These Concluding Observations outline positive aspects, principal subjects of concern and the Committee’s recommendations on how to address challenges faced by the States parties. Once the Concluding Observations have been adopted, the documents will be posted on the CED webpage under the relevant session.

The CED may also adopt lists of issues to be transmitted to States parties in the form of a letter to which States parties are expected to reply. Both the letters including the lists of issues and the States parties’ replies will be posted on the CED webpage.

NHRI reports for CED at its sessions
CED welcomes written information, which should be as specific, reliable and objective as possible, from NHRI s. NHRI reports which follow the same form of presentation as the reports submitted by the State party concerned are especially welcome.

All submissions to CED should be:
1. Submitted in English, French or Spanish. As most CED members use English as their working language, documents submitted in French and Spanish should, to the extent possible, be translated into English. Please note that the UN Secretariat does not translate documents submitted by NHRI s.

2. Transmitted to the CED Secretariat in Geneva by 27 January 2014 with respect to States upon which lists of issues will be adopted. The deadline for information on State parties to be examined by the Committee is 3 February 2014. All documents must be submitted in electronic form to ced@ohchr.org stating clearly in the subject of the email the country the submission refer to and the session number. These deadlines allow the Country Taskforces and other members of CED time to read the reports before the session.

OHCHR does not reproduce NHRI documents. Therefore, NHRI s attending a session are requested to bring 20 hard copies of their documents for distribution at the meeting. Those not attending a session are requested to ensure that 20 hard copies of their documents reach the Secretariat of the Committee in time for the respective session, i.e. at least two weeks in advance.

To claim for the ground pass all applicants are required to appear in person at the United Nations Pass and Identifications Unit located at the Palais des Nations, Pregny Gate, 8-14 Avenue de la Paix, 1211 Geneva 10. Informal meetings and lunchtime briefings NHRI representatives are welcome to attend public meetings of CED as observers, but will not be given the opportunity to address CED during its meetings with the States parties’ delegations. Nevertheless, NHRI representatives have the possibility of addressing the Committee in formal private sessions (closed meetings) with interpretation. These meetings are set out in the programme of work (see session webpage) and normally take place a day or two before the consideration of the State party concerned.

Informal briefings (without interpretation) may also be organized between NHRIs representatives and members of CED on the day prior to (or the day of) the examination. To find out the schedule of formal and informal meetings you may contact the Secretariat.

There will be a designated room for these briefings.

Please contact CED Secretariat (mgbianchi@ohchr.org and ced@ohchr.org) preferably before 21 February 2014 to confirm attendance at a formal briefing and/or informal briefing with the members.
