

Fatoumata Abdourhamane DICKO (Mali)

Date and place of birth: 8 April 1963

Working language(s): French

Current position/function

Has spent 12 years preparing reports by the Government on the conventions it has ratified in the area of human rights in general and in the field of labour in all its aspects, including non-discrimination, forced labour and respect for freedom of association.

Since December 2008, active participation in the International Migration Programme of the International Labour Office at Geneva, and more specifically in the Programme “Improving institutional capacity to govern labour migration in North and West Africa” with a view to improving the formulation of migration policy.

Main professional activities

Since 28 May 2009, Manager of the Programme “Improving institutional capacity to govern labour migration in North and West Africa”

August 1998–May 2009: Chief, Juridical and International Standards Division, Ministry of Labour and the Civil Service

September 1996–August 1998: Member of the Civil Service

July 1995–September 1996: Area Manager for the Programme of Support to Peasant Association in the Mopti Region

June 1994–July 1995: Lecturer in a private education establishment

Educational background

June 1998, at the Ecole Nationale d’Administration (ENA), Bamako – Master’s degree in private law (main subjects: civil law, law of obligations, administrative law, public international law, labour law, criminal law)

December 2005, at the African Regional Centre for Labour Administration (CRADAT), Yaoundé: Specialized Higher Education Diploma in human resources management (main subjects: human resources management, auditing, human resources economics, policy planning and evaluation, management, time management)

Other main activities in the field relevant to the mandate of the treaty body concerned

Permanent Secretary and Member of the Consultative Framework for Migration Management in Mali

Member of the Steering Committee of the Partnership Programme for Occupational Migration Management of GIP/Inter

Focal point for all information used in preparing the report of the Government of the Republic of Mali under the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families

Responsible for drawing up reports on ratified international standards conventions, pursuant to the comments of the Committee of Experts, as well as reports on unratified conventions and all questionnaires preparing for new standards

Served for eight years as a member of the International Labour Conference Committee on the Application of Standards

List of most recent publications in the field

August 2009:       Compilation of legislation and regulations on migration in Mali

                          Compilation of social security conventions signed by Mali

October 2009:     Mapping of migration in Mali

In preparation:   Guide to migration management

Trends in female migration

Essay on social protection for Malian emigrants