On 12 February 2018, in the area of Huwaimi also in the Karash neighbourhood, a 21-year old man stepped on a mine that subsequently led to the amputation of his left leg. Before the incident, he was working as a guard of a building, but since his injury he has been unable to find employment.

On 24 September 2015 in the village of Jabal al-Mashraqi, Karash neighborhood, Qubaitah district, Lahij, a 13-year old child stepped on an anti-personnel landmine near his home when he was returning from his prayers. The explosion led to the loss of his right leg. After the incident, the family was displaced to the area of al-Mqaytir, Taban district.