

Invitation: side event

Putting intersectionally front and centre:
A UN Treaty to address the impacts of corporate impunity on women & indigenous peoples

Tuesday 15 October | 13:00 - 14:00
Palais des Nations, Geneva, room XXIII

The UN Treaty on Business and Human Rights is a historic opportunity to address power balance between people, the planet and corporations and the need to regulate business activities in international human rights law. Expert panellists will share cases that demonstrate how the activities by corporations have impacted women and indigenous people. It will discuss recent efforts to use international human rights law to regulate the activities of businesses that impact on equality and women's rights.

Speakers to be confirmed.
