HUMAN RIGHTS AND CLIMATE CHANGE

9 OCTOBER 2018

By e-mail on the 3 September 2018, the Office of the United Nations Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) has requested information on the integration of a gender-responsive approach into climate action at the local, national, regional and international levels for the full and effective enjoyment of the rights of women.

The Danish Institute for Human Rights (DIHR) welcomes the initiative of the OHCHR and the importance of human Rights Council Resolution A/HRC/RES/38/4 on human rights and climate change. DIHR have no specific remarks in relation to the questions raised, but would kindly like to draw attention to the publication prepared by the DIHR on the relationship between human rights and climate change.

The publication is available at:
