Overview of Swiss Social Security

Visit of the Special Rapporteur on the Right to Development in Switzerland
(Berne, 24 September 2019)

Claudina Mascetta, FSIO, head of IO Section
Content

1. Old-age, survivors and invalidity coverage
2. Sickness insurance
3. Accident and occupational disease insurance
4. Income compensation in case of military/civil service and in case of maternity
5. Family allowances
6. Unemployment insurance
1. Old-age, survivors and invalidity coverage: The three-pillar-system

1st pillar
Basic Pension System

2nd pillar
Occupational Benefit Plans

3rd pillar a
Linked Individual Provident Measures
Basic pension insurance
(1\textsuperscript{st} pillar)

Old-age, survivors’ and invalidity insurance

- Covers basic needs
- Compulsory insurance for the whole working and/or residing population
- Pay-as-you-go system
- Contributions: approx. 10\% of income (min. 461 CHF/year [465 USD])
- Pension amount: from 1’185 CHF [1’196 USD] to 2’370 CHF [2’392 USD] per month
Basic pension insurance
(1st pillar)

Supplementary benefits

• Non-contributory
• Means-tested benefits (corresponding to the excess of expenses over income)
• Amount supposed to cover the basic needs for a person living at home: 19’450 CHF per year [19’617 USD], as well as the rent of an apartment up to a maximum of 13’200 CHF per year [13’313 USD]
Basic pension insurance
(1st pillar): Financing

- Pay-as-you-go: revenue of one year covers expenditures of this year
- Revenue = contributions on incomes + participation by public authorities
- Contributions: Employee and Employer pay a parital % of income without any upper limit
- Self-employed pay a % of income
- Persons not in paid employment pay a fixed amount according to their social conditions
Basic pension insurance
(1\textsuperscript{st} pillar): old age insurance

Old age pensions:
- at the age of 65 for men / 64 for women
- at least one complete year of contributions
- for foreign nationals: domicile in Switzerland
- a complete pension is paid when the period of contributions is complete, i.e. when a person shows the same number of years of contributions as that of their age group
Basic pension insurance
(1st pillar): survivors’ benefits

- Entitlement to widows’ and widowers’ pension, if the widow or widower supports one or several children
- Entitlement to widows’ pension, if the widow has completed her 45th year and was married for at least five years
- Entitlement to orphans’ pension, if the father or mother is deceased; two orphans’ pensions, if both parents are deceased
Basic pension insurance (1st pillar): invalidity insurance

- Priority to rehabilitation measures in order to re-establish, maintain or improve work capacity
- Invalidity pension:
  - entitlement to a 1/4, 1/2, 3/4 or 1/1 pension in case of work incapacity or incapacity to perform housework of at least 40%, 50%, 60%, 70%
  - 3 years of contribution
  - for foreign nationals: domicile in Switzerland
Occupational benefit plans (2\textsuperscript{nd} pillar)

- Compulsory insurance for employees with annual income over 21’330 CHF [21’511 USD]
- Must enable to maintain the previous standard of living in an appropriate way
- Insurance for annual income between 24’885 CHF [25’096 USD] and 85’320 CHF [86’043 USD]
- Contributions according to regulations of 2nd pillar institution
Occupational benefit plans (2\textsuperscript{nd} pillar)

- Fully funded scheme: pensions are calculated in \% of the retirement assets which the insured person has accumulated
- Old-age benefits, survivors' benefits, invalidity benefits, capital benefits
- Vested benefits, on departure from 2\textsuperscript{nd} pillar institution
- Entitlement to old age pensions at the age of 65 for men and 64 for women
Occupational benefit plans (2\textsuperscript{nd} pillar)

- Extra-Compulsory insurance:
  2nd pillar institutions can insure salaries lower than 21’330 CHF [21’511 USD], e.g. for part-time workers, or beyond 85’320 CHF [86’043 USD]
Linked individual provident measures (3rd pillar a)

• Optional, additional coverage
• Payments to blocked bank account or blocked insurance policy
• Max. 6’826 CHF [6’882 USD] per year can be deducted from taxable income
• Amounts are blocked until the risk (old-age, invalidity, death) occurs
2. Sickness insurance

- Compulsory health care insurance for all persons domiciled in Switzerland; optional cash benefits insurance
- Free choice among about 50 insurance companies
- Insurance companies fix individual premiums; premiums must be approved by the authorities
- Insurance companies charge all those they insure the same premiums; premiums must be lower for children and young adults (<25 years) and may be graded according to different regional costs
Sickness Insurance

- Huge range of sickness and maternity benefits covered; exceptions: normal dental care, occupational and non-occupational accidents and occupational diseases covered by the accident insurance, rehabilitation measures covered by the invalidity insurance
- Free choice among the suppliers of services
- Participation by insured person
3. Accident and occupational disease insurance

- Compulsory insurance for all employed persons
- Covers occupational as well as non-occupational (!) accidents and occupational diseases
- Benefits: medical care, daily cash benefit, invalidity pension (80% of insured salary in case of full incapacity), survivors’ pension
- Priority to benefits of the pension insurance in case of overlapping of benefits
4. Income compensation allowances in case of military/civil service and maternity

- Persons serving in the Swiss Army or carrying out a civilian service are entitled to an allowance in case of service amounting to 80% of the former average income (maximum: 245 CHF [247 USD] per day)

- Employed and self-employed women are entitled to an allowance in case of maternity during 14 weeks amounting to 80% of the former average income (maximum: 196 CHF [198 USD] per day)
5. Family allowances

- Federal system for agricultural workers and self-employed farmers
- 26 cantonal systems for the other sectors, covering employees, self-employed and persons not engaged in paid employment with low income
- Federal Law fixing minimum child allowances at 200 CHF [202 USD] per month and vocational training allowances at 250 CHF [252 USD] per month; cantons may provide higher allowances
6. Unemployment Insurance

- Compulsory insurance for all employees subject to the basic pension insurance (1st pillar)
- Requisites: 12 months of contribution, unemployed or partially unemployed, domicile in Switzerland
- In principle, 400 daily unemployment allowances, amounting to 70 or 80% of the insured salary (maximum insured salary: 12’350 CHF [12’449 USD] per month)