

JO/UN/646

The Permanent Mission of Japan to the United Nations and Other International Organizations in Geneva presents its compliments to the United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights and, with reference to the latter's note verbal dated 3rd August 2010 regarding the organization of a series of expert workshops on the prohibition of incitement to national, racial or religious hatred as contained in international human rights law, has the honour to transmit herewith the information on Japan's experiences in implementing the prohibition of incitement to hatred through national legislation, judicial practices and different types of policies.

The Permanent Mission of Japan to the United Nations and Other International Organizations in Geneva avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights the assurances of its highest consideration.
