

Communications Consent Form for Video Selfies

The United Nations Human Rights Office wants to make sure that you understand how your video may be used for our event, the Social Forum of the Human Rights Council. We want to make sure that your views are included at this meeting by showing some of your videos in this UN global meeting on education. The event will be broadcast publicly online, which means that your videos would be shown to a global audience and would remain on the UN website. They may also be shared on social media and on our website. The materials collected will only be used to promote the work that we are doing.

Please answer the following questions, and remember that after signing this form, you can change your mind until September 27, 2019. Please tick the boxes below to indicate whether or not you give your consent:

- Is it OK for us to show the video that you send to us at the UN Social Forum event?
 YES NO

If you say yes, you can still tell us that you don't want certain images, audio, film or other materials to be shared and we will do our best to make these changes until 27 September 2019.

- Is it OK for us to share your video or parts of it on our website and on social media?
