20th ANNIVERSARY CONFERENCE
OF THE MANDATE OF THE UN SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR ON THE HUMAN RIGHTS OF MIGRANTS

STOCK TAKING AND WAY FORWARD

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

12 - 13 November 2019
Mexico City, Mexico
Universidad Iberoamericana

#SRmigrants20 | www.ohchr.org
The year 2019 marks the 20th anniversary of the mandate of the Special Rapporteur on the human rights of migrants. This will be commemorated at an event on 12 and 13 November 2019 in Mexico City.

The aim of the conference is to take stock and look ahead. The event will provide a space for the current Special Rapporteur together with relevant stakeholders, and his predecessors, to reflect on the impact and achievements of the mandate at national, regional and international levels. It is also an opportunity to reflect further on the challenges facing the human rights of migrants today and explore thematic priorities for the future work of the mandate.

On the first day, the discussion is structured along the different methods of work of the mandate (thematic reports, country visits, communications and other advocacy activities), to explore how the mandate has contributed to the protection and realisation of the human rights of all migrants, and what lessons can be learned for the future work of the mandate.

On the second day, the thematic discussions will focus on rights-based approaches to migration governance and protection gaps in the context of large movements. These sessions will provide a space to reflect on how to address the current challenges facing migrants and migration governance today, and what role the mandate on the human rights of migrants can play.

Mexico has been chosen as the location for the conference because the Mexican government is the sponsor of the resolution to establish and renew the mandate since its beginning.

Simultaneous translation in English and Spanish will be provided throughout the event.
Tuesday, 12 November 2019

D A Y  O N E

8:30-9:00  Registration

09.00 – 09.30  Opening Ceremony

Introductory remarks by Felipe González Morales, United Nations Special Rapporteur on the human rights of migrants

Opening remarks by Cristopher Ballinas, Director General for Human Rights and Democracy, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Mexico

Welcome remarks by Mariana Zaragoza, Coordinator of the Program on Migration, Universidad Iberoamericana, and Jan Jarab, Head of the OHCHR Mexico Office.

09.30– 11.00  Session I

20 years of the mandate of the Special Rapporteur on the human rights of migrants: achievements and challenges

Moderator: Karim Ghezraoui, Chief, Groups and Accountability Section, Special Procedures Branch, OHCHR

Panelists:

Gabriela Rodríguez Pizarro (Special Rapporteur from 1999-2005) - video message
Jorge A. Bustamante (Special Rapporteur from 2005-2011)
François Crépeau (Special Rapporteur from 2011-2017) - video message
Felipe González Morales (Special Rapporteur since 2017)

Expected outcome:

The current Rapporteur along with his predecessors will reflect on their experience during their tenures. The panellists will reflect on the context and challenges they encountered during the time as Special Rapporteurs. They are invited to discuss lessons learned and the evolution of the mandate during its first 20 years, by identifying achievements and, discuss remaining challenges. Based on their experiences, and interpretation of the current situation, they may be able to identify future opportunities and priorities.

Coffee Break and group photo
11.30 – 13.00
Session II

Annual reports and thematic topics

Moderator: Felipe González Morales, Special Rapporteur on the human rights of migrants

Panelists:

Paula Narváez, UN Women Regional Advisor in Governance and Political Participation
Mounir Bensalah, Secretary General of the National Human Rights Council of Morocco
Carolina Gottardo, Director of the Jesuit Refugee Service Australia and member of UN Women Expert Group on Gender and the GCM

Expected outcome:

Panelists are asked to share their experiences from cooperating with the mandate on annual thematic reports, as the mandate reports once per year to the Human Rights Council and to the General Assembly (the reports list can be found at page 8). The use and impact of these reports, particularly the recommendations can be discussed, as well as how this influenced actions, shaped activities, and contributed to (domestic) norms and standards.

Lunch Break

14.30 – 15.45
Session III

Country visits and their impact

Moderator: Jorge A. Bustamante, former Special Rapporteur on the human rights of migrants

Panelists:

Valerie Svobodova, Senior Human Rights Adviser of UNHCR Geneva
Augusto Jordán Rodas Andrade, Ombudsman of Guatemala

Expected outcome:

Panelists will share their experiences with country visits of the mandate. The mandate visited over 30 countries on all continents in 20 years, and produced a report with specific recommendations (see the country visits list at page 7). The panel should explore what impact the recommendations had on the promotion and protection of the human rights of migrants in the respective country or region, and what the lasting impact of such visits can be.

Coffee Break
16.15–17.30

Session IV

Engagement and advocacy

Moderator: Leah Chavla, Policy Advisor Women’s Refugee Commission

Panelists:

Gwendolyn Ll. Pimentel-Gana, Commissioner of the Commission on Human Rights of the Philippines
Álvaro Botero, Rapporteur of the Committee on Migrant Workers and formerly with the Inter-American Commission for Human Rights
Helena Olea, Human Rights Adviser of Alianza Americas

Expected outcome:

Panelists will share their experiences with the mandate in relation to its engagement and advocacy work. This relates to communications the mandate sent to address alleged violations of the human rights of migrants, or policies, laws and practices that were not in line with international human rights standards. This session aims to address as well the advocacy of the mandate during events, forums, consultations, and webinars organised or attended by the Special Rapporteur. Another aspect to be covered in this session is the engagement of the mandate in international processes and initiatives, such as the GFMD and the Global Compact on Migration.

17.30–18.00

Wrap-up session

Felipe González Morales, United Nations Special Rapporteur on the human rights of migrants
In the thematic discussions, panellists will reflect on contemporary issues for the protection and promotion of the human rights of migrants, against the backdrop of current political and legal developments. Specific suggestions for the future work of the mandate in these areas can also be addressed, as well as good practices from the experience of the participants, as well as from previous initiatives of the mandate.

09.00 – 10.30 Thematic discussion I

Building rights-based approaches to migration governance

Moderator: Karim Ghezraoui, Chief, Groups and Accountability Section, Special Procedures Branch, OHCHR

Panelists:

Jessica Lopez Mejia, Policy Director for Migrant’s Protection and Integration, Policy Migration Unit at the Ministry of the Interior of Mexico
Jamil Dakwar, Director, Human Rights Program, American Civil Liberties Union
Misun Woo, Regional Coordinator, Asia Pacific Forum on Women, Law and Development
Michael Flynn, Director, Global Detention Project
José Antonio Guevara, Chair of the Working Group on Arbitrary Detention

Topics for discussion:

Rights-based approaches to migration governance, including migration detention (of children) and alternatives to detention, as well as reactions to the criminalization of migration, the criminalization of sea rescue, and impediments to the work of migrants’ rights defenders.

Coffee Break
11.00 – 12.30

Thematic discussion II

Addressing protection gaps in the context of large movements

Moderator: Mariana Zaragoza, Coordinator of the Program on Migration, Universidad Iberoamericana

Panelists:

Leonardo Arízaga, Under Secretary for Immigration and Consular Services, Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Human Mobility of Ecuador
Dr. Anna Baka, Greek National Commission for Human Rights
Edgar Corzo, Elected member of the Committee on Migrant Workers and Fifth General Visitor of the National Human Rights Commission of Mexico.
Dr. Linda Adhiambo Ocho, Director of the African Migration and Development Policy Centre and member of the Pan African Network in Defense of Migrants
Josep Herreros, Head of Protection of UNHCR

Topics for discussion:

Mixed migration flows, availability of pathways for regular migration, vulnerabilities and protection gaps in contemporary migration, including countering the rise in xenophobia and hate speech against migrants.

12.30 – 13.00

Closing Remarks and Way Forward

Felipe González Morales, Special Rapporteur on the human rights of migrants
David Fernández Dávalos, Rector of Universidad Iberoamericana
COUNTRY VISITS

The list below corresponds to the Country Visits conducted by the mandate of the Special Rapporteur on the human rights of migrants

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Country</th>
<th>Date of the visit</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Bosnia and Herzegovina</td>
<td>September to October 2019</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hungary</td>
<td>July 2019</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Niger</td>
<td>October 2018</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nepal</td>
<td>Jan to February 2018</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Angola</td>
<td>May 2016</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Greece</td>
<td>May 2016/ November to December 2012</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Australia and the regional processing centres in Nauru</td>
<td>November 2016/ September to October 2015</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Malta</td>
<td>December 2014</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Italy</td>
<td>December 2014/ September to October 2012 and June 2004</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sri Lanka</td>
<td>May 2014</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Qatar</td>
<td>November 2013</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Turkey</td>
<td>June 2012</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tunisia</td>
<td>June 2012</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>European Union (Brussels)</td>
<td>May 2012</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Albania</td>
<td>December 2011</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>South Africa</td>
<td>January to February 2011</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Japan</td>
<td>March 2010</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Senegal</td>
<td>August 2009</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>United Kingdom</td>
<td>June 2009</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Romania</td>
<td>June 2009</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Guatemala</td>
<td>March 2008</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mexico</td>
<td>March 2008/ February 2002</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>United States of America</td>
<td>April to May 2007</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Indonesia</td>
<td>December 2006</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>South Korea</td>
<td>December 2006</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Burkina Faso</td>
<td>February 2005</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Peru</td>
<td>September 2004</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Iran</td>
<td>February 2004</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Morocco</td>
<td>October 2003</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Spain</td>
<td>September 2003</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Philippines</td>
<td>May 2002</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Border between Mexico and the USA</td>
<td>March 2002</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ecuador</td>
<td>November 2001</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Canada</td>
<td>September 2000</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
THEMATIC REPORTS

The list below corresponds to the thematic reports presented by the mandate of the Special Rapporteur on the human rights of migrants before the Human Rights Council and the General Assembly.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year/Session</th>
<th>Topic</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2019 41st session HRC</td>
<td>The impact of migration on migrant women and girls: a gender perspective</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2019 74th session GA</td>
<td>Good practices and initiatives of gender-responsive migration legislation and policies</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2018 38th session HRC</td>
<td>Return and reintegration of migrants</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2018 73rd session GA</td>
<td>Access to justice for migrant persons</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2017 35th session HRC</td>
<td>A 2035 agenda for facilitating human mobility</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2017 72nd session GA</td>
<td>A 2035 agenda for facilitating human mobility</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2016 32nd session HRC</td>
<td>The impact of bilateral and multilateral trade agreements on the human rights of migrants</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2016 71st session GA</td>
<td>Developing the Global Compact on Migration</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2015 29th session HRC</td>
<td>Banking on mobility over a generation: follow-up on the regional study on the management of the external borders of the EU and its impact on the human rights of migrants</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2015 70th session GA</td>
<td>Recruitment Practices and the Human Rights of Migrants</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2014 25th session HRC</td>
<td>Labour exploitation of migrants</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2014 69th session GA</td>
<td>Human rights of migrants in the post-2015 development agenda</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2013 23rd session HRC</td>
<td>Regional study: management of the external borders of the European Union and its impact on the human rights of migrants</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2013 68th session GA</td>
<td>Global migration governance</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2012 20th session HRC</td>
<td>Detention of migrants in an irregular situation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2012 67th session GA</td>
<td>Climate change and migration</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2011 17th session HRC</td>
<td>Recapitulation of main thematic issues (irregular migration and criminalization of migrants; protection of children in the migration process; right to housing and health of migrants)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2010 14th session HRC</td>
<td>Enjoyment of the rights to health and adequate housing by migrants</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2010 65th session GA</td>
<td>Impact of the criminalization of migration on the protection and enjoyment of human rights</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2009 11th session HRC</td>
<td>Protection of children in the context of migration</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2009 64th session GA</td>
<td>The protection of children in the context of migration</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2008 7th session HRC</td>
<td>Criminalization of irregular migration</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2007 62nd session GA</td>
<td>Border control, expulsion, and conditions for the admission and stay of migrants</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2006 61st session GA</td>
<td>Impact of certain laws and administrative measures on migrants</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2005 60th session GA</td>
<td>Preliminary observations regarding migration and the human rights of migrants</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2005 61st session CHR</td>
<td>Racism, racial discrimination and xenophobia/Migrant women and unaccompanied children</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2004 60th session CHR</td>
<td>Vulnerability of migrant domestic workers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2003 59th session CHR</td>
<td>Human rights of migrants deprived of their liberty</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2003 58th session GA</td>
<td>Good practices observed by the Special Rapporteur</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2002 57th session GA</td>
<td>Conceptual and substantive development of the question of the human rights of migrants</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Felipe González Morales is the United Nations Special Rapporteur on the human rights of migrants. He is Professor of International Law at the Diego Portales University, in Santiago, Chile, where he is also the Director of a Master's in international human rights law. He was a Commissioner and the Rapporteur on Migrants between 2008 and 2015 at the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights, where he was President between 2010-2011. Professor González teaches International Human Rights Law since 2003 at several postgraduate programs at the University Carlos III in Madrid, as well as in several other universities in Spain. Since 2001, he teaches at the American University Human Rights Academy in Washington, D.C.

He is the founder and was the first director of the Center for Human Rights at the Diego Portales University. He is also the founder and was the first director of a Latin American Network of Human Rights Legal Clinics. Professor González holds a Doctorate and a Master's in Advanced Human Rights from University Carlos III and an LL.M. in International Legal Studies from American University. Professor González has also taught classes at the Universidad de Deusto, the Universidad Pontificia de Comillas, the Universidad Externado de Colombia, Pontificia Universidad Católica de Perú, the Universidad de Buenos Aires, the University of Venice and Lund University. An author of many publications in his field, he has also co-authored and edited 15 books and more than 100 scholarly articles.

Christopher Ballinas is Collegiate Associate Professor in Public Policy at the Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México and Associated Researcher at the Centre of Mexican Studies, University of Oxford. He specializes in the study of executive government, public sector reform, autonomous agencies and the effects of politics in policy outcomes. He also possesses extensive high-level experience in policy design, implementation and evaluation, as he has been advisor in public policy to three deputy ministers at the central government in Mexico and has overseen several federal programs, including the second largest welfare program at the federal government. He was awarded the Gabino Barreda Medal in Political Science by the National Autonomous University of Mexico in 2000. His latest book, The Politics of Agency Design: Political Struggles and the Forging of Autonomous Government Agencies (Palgrave Macmillan, 2011) gives a general account of how to understand bureaucratic autonomy and what shapes it, focusing on the political struggles during the forging of government agencies.
Mariana Zaragoza
Coordinator, Program
on Migration,
Universidad
Iberoamericana

Mariana Zaragoza has a Degree in International Relations from ITESO, the Jesuit University of Guadalajara, Mexico. She also has a master’s degree in Development and International Cooperation from the HEGOA Institute of the University of the Basque Country (UPV/EHU). She has worked on several projects related to women, development and indigenous peoples. She participated in the advocacy area of the Spanish Commission for Refugee Aid in Euskadi (CEAR-Euskadi) and did professional internships in the feminist development cooperation NGO "Mugarik Gabe" in the planning and advocacy following the symbolic International Tribunal for Women’s Rights, Vienna +20, Euskal Herria 2013. Before collaborating with Ibero, she worked in the Jesuit social work Fomento Cultural y Educativo A.C. and in the Economic, Social and Cultural Rights Project A.C. In the autumn of 2016, she gave a seminar on Gender and Development Cooperation in the master’s degree in International Cooperation for Development at the Mora Institute, Mexico. Since August 2015 she has been collaborating with the Advocacy Directorate and currently coordinates the Migratory Affairs Program of the Universidad Iberoamericana Ciudad de México-Tijuana.

Jan Jarab
UN Human Rights
Office’s
Representative in Mexico

Jan Jarab is since June 2016 the current Representative of the Office in Mexico of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights.

Previously, Mr. Jarab was Representative of the OHCHR Regional Office for Europe from January 2010 to June 2016. From November 2004 to January 2010, he served as a member of the Cabinet of the European Commissioner for Employment, Social Affairs and Inclusion at the European Commission in Brussels.

He also served in the Human Rights Office of the Czech Government from January 1999 to October 2004.
Gabriela Rodríguez Pizarro
Former UN Special Rapporteur on the human rights of migrants (1999-2005)

Of Chilean and Costa Rican nationality, she is a Psychologist from the Pontifical Catholic University of Chile and Doctor in Psychology from the University of Caen, France. As former United Nations Special Rapporteur on the human rights of migrants, she had a universal mandate, and held the position from August 1999 to November 2005. The Member States extended her mandate for two consecutive terms. Her work has been focused on the protection of refugees, displaced persons, and migrants both in Europe and in Latin America and the Caribbean, as well as on cooperation for the formulation of public policies on migration, gender equity, human rights and their link with the crimes of trafficking in persons and smuggling of migrants.

Pensioned in 2010 from IOM Geneva, she is currently Senior Staff of IOM and President of the International Centre for the Human Rights of Migrants (CIDEHUM). Since 2011 she has been working in Costa Rica and Latin America (North, Central, and South) as an expert in human rights and migration, especially victims of the crime of trafficking in persons, women and migrant children. Her publications can be found on the CIDEHUM website.

---

Mr. Karim Ghezraoui

Chief, Groups and Accountability Section, Special Procedures Branch, Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights

Mr. Karim Ghezraoui is the Chief of the “Groups and Accountability Section” within the Thematic Engagement, Special Procedures and Right to Development Division at United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights. He is responsible for the implementation of the special procedures thematic mandates related to specific groups such as migrants; indigenous peoples; internally displaced persons; minorities; older persons; peoples with disability; SOGI and the mandate on “sale of children”. He joined the UN in 1993 and has been working in the field as well as at HQ, mainly at OHCHR holding various assignments including Chief a.i of the Special Procedures Branch, Geographic Coordinator of the Arab Region as well as the Asia-Pacific Region. He has also conducted numerous field missions in Africa, Asia, Latin America and Arab countries, reporting on human rights issues and developing and implementing various capacity building projects. Mr. Ghezraoui has a Master in political science and international relations from the University of Geneva, Switzerland.
François Crépeau is a Full Professor and the Hans & Tamar Oppenheimer Chair in Public International Law at the Faculty of Law of McGill University, as well as the Director of the McGill Centre for Human Rights and Legal Pluralism. He was the United Nations Special Rapporteur on the human rights of migrants from 2011 to 2017. In this capacity, he conducted official visits to Albania, Tunisia, Turkey, Italy, Greece, Qatar, Sri Lanka, Malta, the European institutions in Brussels and Vienna, Angola, Australia and Nauru. He has also produced several thematic reports: the detention of migrants, the protection of migrants’ rights at the external borders of the European Union, climate change and migration, global migration governance, labour exploitation of migrants, labour recruitment practices, trade agreements and migration.

Professor Crépeau is a member of the Scientific Committee of the Agency for Fundamental Rights of the European Union, the Chair of the Thematic Working Group: Migrant Rights and Integrations in Host Communities, KNOMAD - Global Knowledge Partnership on Migration and Development, World Bank Group, Washington, DC, and a member of the Advisory Committee of the International Migration Initiative of the Open Society Foundations (NY). He is a member of the Board of Directors of the International Bureau for Children’s Rights (Montreal). Furthermore, he is a member of several editorial boards: Journal of Refugee Studies, International Journal of Refugee Law, Refuge, Droits fondamentaux, European Journal of Human Rights, Inter Gentes – McGill Journal of International Law & Legal Pluralism.

Professor Crépeau is an Officer of the Order of Canada (2017), a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada (2012), a Fellow of the Pierre Elliott Trudeau Foundation (2008-2011), a Doctor Honoris Causa from the Université de Clermont-Auvergne (France, 2018), and an Advocatus Emeritus of the Quebec Bar Association (2013).

Jorge A. Bustamante
Former UN Special Rapporteur on the human rights of migrants (2005-2011)

Jorge A. Bustamante is the former United Nations Special Rapporteur on the human rights of migrants and Advisor to the President of the National Commission of Human Rights of Mexico. He is a sociologist with a PhD from the University of Notre Dame, where he also holds an endowed chair (Eugene Conley Professor of Sociology) since 1986. Bustamante is Professor at El Colegio de la Frontera Norte, a research and degree granting institute located in Tijuana, where he was President from its creation in 1982 until January of 1998. He has more than 200 publications in scholarly journals of the United States, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, Venezuela, Spain, and Mexico. The majority of these publications are research reports on Mexican immigration to the United States, US-Mexico border phenomena and US-Mexico relations. Dr. Bustamante has been quoted as a leading expert in the field of international migrations by most major newspapers in the United States, as well as in his appearances in T.V. programs such as Night Line, 60 Minutes and the McNeil-Lehrer News.
Paula Narváez is a chilean psychologist and politician with more than 20 years of experience in public management, public policies, gender and women's participation. Paula is a psychologist from Universidad Andrés Bello, Chile. She holds a master's degree in Economics and Regional Management from Universidad Austral, Chile and a master's degree in Latin American Studies from Georgetown University, USA. She was regional programming officer, presidential delegate, chief of staff and advisor to former president Michelle Bachelet. Subsequently, she served as Minister General Secretary of the Government of Chile in the second term of the former president Bachelet. Currently, Paula is Regional Advisor in Governance and Women's Political Participation at UN Women for Latin America and the Caribbean.

Mounir Bensalah, was appointed by His Majesty King Mohammed VI as Secretary-General of the National Human Rights Council. He is an engineer. He studied at Mohammadia School of Engineering (EMI) in Rabat in 2002. At the age of 40 years old, he has accumulated more than 17 years of professional experience in management and structuring projects and operational units with several Moroccan and multinational businesses. Mr. Bensalah was an active member of numerous working groups, and has been engaged in advocacy and mobilization related to human rights and freedoms both in Morocco and at regional and international level. In 2005, Mr. Bensalah co-chaired the Congress of the Association of Engineers of the Mohammadia School of Engineering. From 2006 to 2018, he held several positions within the Moroccan Organization of Human Rights (OMDH). Mounir Bensalah was one of the leaders of the 20 February movement. In 2013, he created the association "Anfass Democratic Movement", which he chaired until 2018. Mr. Bensalah was a member of the Regional Commission of Human Rights of Casablanca-Settat from 2011 to 2018. He is the author of several articles and studies: Réseaux sociaux et révolutions arabes (Social networks and Arab revolutions) in 2012 and “Railway Information Modeling RIM - The Track to Rail Modernization” in 2019.

Carolina Gottardo is a migrant lawyer and economist specializing on human rights issues for more than 20 years in different regions including Asia Pacific, Europe and Latin America. She specializes on gender, asylum and migration. She is the Director of Jesuit Refugee Service, Australia. Previously she was the CEO of a migrant women's rights organization in the UK. Carolina's expertise is in policy and advocacy and she has worked with the British Institute of Human Rights, Refugee Council of Australia and Womankind Worldwide amongst others. She has also worked with the Constitutional Court in her native country, Colombia. Carolina has served on boards in London, Bangkok, Brussels and Sydney. She is currently the co-chair of the End Child Detention Coalition Australia and the chair of the women, gender and diversity group and focal point on the Global Compact for Migration (GCM) at the Asia Pacific Refugee Rights Network. Carolina has ample experience of advocacy with the UN system and is a member of the UN Women's Global Expert Working Group to address the human rights of women in the GCM. She is also a member of the Women in Migration Network and a member of the board for both the International Detention Coalition and the Global Coalition for Migration.
Session III: Country visits and their impact

Valerie Svobodova
Senior Human Rights Adviser of UNHCR
Geneva

Valerie Svobodova holds a PhD degree from Walden University, USA in Public Policy and Administration (Global Leadership). She has been working as a humanitarian worker in emergency field operations for over 12 years (Niger, Ethiopia, Pakistan, Rwanda, DRC, Haiti, Philippines) in the protection area. Currently, she works with UNHCR in Geneva as the head of the Human Rights Liaison Unit.

Augusto Jordán Rodas Andrade
Ombudsman of Guatemala

Lawyer and notary from the University of San Carlos de Guatemala (USAC), he holds a master’s degree in Local Public Management and is a Doctoral Candidate in Law from the University Rafael Landívar and the University of the Basque Country/Euskal Herriko Unibertsitarea (UPV/EHU). He also develops as a Professor at the Centro Universitario de Occidente (CUNOC) at the Studies on Transparency, Accountability and the Fight against Corruption; in Local Public Management. Mr. JordánRodas is a legal expert in Constitutional Guarantees and Fundamental Rights in Criminal Law and Criminal Procedure, Environmental Legislation, Justice and Citizen Security. In 2015 he was elected vice-president of the Guatemalan Bar Association. Second syndic (1996-2000) and ninth councilman (2004-2008) of the Municipality of Quetzaltenango. He currently serves as the Ombudsman of the Republic of Guatemala since August 20, 2017.
Session IV: Engagement and advocacy

Gwendolyn Ll. Pimentel-Gana
Commissioner of the Commission on Human Rights of the Philippines

Atty. Gwendolyn Ll. Pimentel-Gana is a Commissioner of the Commission on Human Rights of the Philippines (CHRP). She is currently active in looking into the concerns of indigenous peoples (IPs) through the establishment of IP observatory and National Inquiry on their situation. She is the focal commissioner for migrant workers, spearheading the establishment of a migrant workers’ observatory to systematically monitor the situation of overseas Filipino workers; she leads the Task Force Extrajudicial Killing, which is tasked to probe vigilante killings in the campaign against illegal drugs. She is co-focal point on the environment & business and human rights concerns.

She has been active in helping formulate and lobby laws promoting the welfare of abandoned, neglected, and abused children by streamlining the adoption process, and providing for alternative childcare means. She has supported laws forwarding the protection of children from exploitation and discrimination; promoting the welfare of domestic workers; protecting migrant workers from trafficking and exploitation; providing for reparation and recognition of human rights victims during the Marcos regime; and, promoting the rehabilitation of prisoners among others.

She received her bachelor's degree in International Studies at Maryknoll College. She earned her Bachelor of Laws and master's degree in Public Administration at the University of the Philippines.

Helena Olea
Human Rights Adviser of Alianza Americas

Helena María Olea Rodríguez is a human rights adviser at Alianza Americas, a network of Latin American migrant-led organizations in the United States. Her work in Alianza centres on human rights and migration from a transnational perspective towards advancing protections, addressing root causes, and exploring international advocacy and litigation possibilities before the Inter-American human rights system and the United Nations.

Helena is a Lecturer at the University of Illinois at Chicago in the departments of Criminology, Law and Justice and Latin American and Latino Studies. Her research focuses on gender in Latin America, human rights and immigration from a comparative perspective.

Helena holds a Law Degree from Universidad de los Andes, Colombia and an LL.M Degree from the University of Notre Dame, USA. She was the founder of the immigrants and refugees law clinic at Universidad Diego Portales, Chile, where she taught and conducted research for seven years. She was also a Lecturer at Universidad Católica de Chile. She has published on migrant's human rights and women's rights.
Thematic discussion I: Building rights-based approaches to migration governance

Jessica Lopez Mejia, Policy Director for Migrant’s Protection and Integration, Policy Migration Unit at the Ministry of the Interior of Mexico

Jessica Lopez Mejia holds a Master’s Degree in Political Analysis and Media and a Bachelor’s Degree in International Relations from the Instituto Tecnológico y de Estudios Superiores de Monterrey, as well as several diplomas and courses on international migration, human rights and public policy formulation. She is a specialist in the international migratory phenomenon, with twelve years of experience in public service.

Her professional orientation is directed towards the construction of public policies from a rights-based approach; planning from a governance approach and effective promotion for the exercise of people’s rights in contexts of mobility; the strengthening of institutional capacities of destination and host communities; and the dissemination of knowledge on the complexity and richness of multicultural integration processes and measures for effective protection during all stages of the migration cycle. For more than six years, she has been Director of Policies for the Protection and Integration of Migrants in the Migration Policy, Registration and Identity of Persons Unit of the Ministry of the Interior. In the academic field, she has participated as a research assistant and contributed to publications coordinated by United Nations agencies regarding the challenges and opportunities of public policy on migration.

Jamil Dakwar
Director of the Human Rights Program of the American Civil Liberties Union

Jamil Dakwar is the Director of the American Civil Liberties Union’s Human Rights Program. Before joining the ACLU, he worked at Human Rights Watch and before moving to the United States he worked at Adalah: The Legal Center for Arab Minority Rights in Israel. He teaches human rights as adjunct professor at Hunter College, Bard College and John Jay College of Criminal Justice (CUNY).

Misun Woo
Regional Coordinator, Asia Pacific Forum on Women, Law and Development

Misun Woo is the Regional Coordinator for the Asia Pacific Forum on Women, Law and Development (APWLD). APWLD is a leading feminist, membership-driven network with 248 members representing organizations and groups of diverse women from 27 countries in the region; and committed to advancing women’s human rights and Development Justice. Misun is a feminist, and human rights advocate, who believes in the power of feminist and peoples’ movements, and to ending resource, power and wealth inequalities between men and women, between rich and poor and between countries.

Michael Flynn
Director of the Global Detention Project

Michael Flynn is the Executive Director of the Global Detention Project. He holds a BA in Philosophy from DePaul University and a PhD in International Studies from the Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies. He is co-author (with Izabella Majcher and Mariette Grange) of Immigration Detention in the European Union: In the Shadow of the “Crisis” (Springer, forthcoming 2020); and co-editor (with Matthew Flynn) of Challenging Immigration Detention: Academics, Activists, and Policymakers (Edward Elgar, 2017).
Thematic discussion II: Addressing protection gaps in the context of large movements

José Antonio Guevara
Chair of the Working Group on Arbitrary Detention

Law graduate from the Universidad Iberoamericana, Mexico City; Doctor in Law from the Universidad Carlos III de Madrid, Spain; as well as professor at the Faculty of Law and Criminology, of the Inter-Institutional Master in Human Rights and member of the Academic Body "International Justice, local contexts of injustice and human rights" (UATLX-CA-233) of the Universidad Autónoma de Tlaxcala. Since January 2014 he has been the Executive Director of the Mexican Commission for the Defense and Promotion of Human Rights and since June 2014, he has been a member of the Working Group on Arbitrary Detention of the United Nations Human Rights Council.

Leonardo Arízaga
Under-Secretary for Migratory and Consular Services, Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Human Mobility of the Government of Ecuador

Leonardo Arízaga has a degree from the School of Foreign Service at the Georgetown University in Washington D.C., United States of America, and is a Doctor in International Relations from the Central University of Ecuador.

Ambassador Arízaga joined Ecuador’s Ministry Foreign Affairs in 1987 and since then has represented Ecuador in Vienna, Austria, from 1992 to 1997 and in Lima, Peru, from 2002 to 2007.

He was Undersecretary of Bilateral Relations between 2009 and 2010, and Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs and Political Integration from 2013 to 2015.

He has also served as Ambassador of Ecuador to the People’s Republic of China in 2010-2012, in Venezuela in 2013 and in Mexico between November 2015 and June 2019.

Dr. Anna Baka
Scientific Associate with the Greek National Commission for Human Rights

Dr. Anna Irene Baka is a licensed Greek jurist, Senior Legal Associate at the Greek National Commission for Human Rights and Adjunct Lecturer in Jurisprudence and EU Law at the University of London International LL.B. Program in Athens, Greece. She has completed her postgraduate studies in Athens, Greece (LL.B. and LL.M. in Public Law and European Integration) and Brussels, Belgium (LL.M. in International, European and Comparative Law). She holds a Ph.D. in International Law and Legal Philosophy from the University of Hong Kong (HKU), for which she was awarded a scholarship by the University of Hong Kong as well as the Hellenic National Scholarship. She has substantial professional legal experience with public entities, parliaments, governments and international organizations in Europe and Asia.
Dr. Linda Adhiambo Oucho is an established migration expert leading the African Migration and Development Policy Centre (AMADPOC), a research think tank leading policy-based research on migration and development issues in Eastern Africa and beyond. As the Executive Director at AMADPOC, Dr. Oucho holds a PhD in Ethnic Relations from the University of Warwick, where she specialized in international migration of African Women. Her research focuses on internal regional migration patterns within Eastern Africa including projects related to poverty, climate change and more recently youth, employment and migration. In addition, she supports countries to develop their national migration policies in line with the guiding principles outlined in the African Union, Migration Policy Framework for Africa (2018).

Dr. Oucho works in partnership with international institutions including University of Ghana, Open University and University of Uganda among others. She currently works closely with the Government of Kenya, Uganda and Malawi, linking research to policy through the National Coordination Mechanism for Migration (NCM). The NCM was established based on the recommendations from the Migration Profile of Kenya (2015). She has also undertaken consultancies with a number of international agencies including IOM, ICMPD, UNDP, GIZ, FAO, IDRC and FES among others.

Dr. Edgar Corzo Sosa holds a bachelor’s degree in Law from the National Autonomous University of Mexico (Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México, UNAM). He also holds a master’s degree in Comparative Public Law from the University of Paris I, Panthéon- Sorbonne and a Doctorate Degree in Constitutional Law from the National Autonomous University of Mexico.

He is the director of the periodical publication Constitutional Issues: Mexican Journal of Constitutional Law (Cuestiones Constitucionales: Revista Mexicana de Derecho Constitucional). He is a full-time academic at the Institute of Juridical Investigations of the UNAM. He currently serves as the Fifth General Visitor of the National Commission of Human Rights, leading three programs of protection: assistance to persons in the context of migration, journalists and human rights defenders and Victims of human trafficking.
Closing Remarks and Way Forward

David Fernández Dávalos
Rector of the Universidad Iberoamericana

David Fernández was born in Guadalajara, Jalisco, January 18, 1957. He is a priest of the Society of Jesus (Jesuit). Graduate in Philosophy and Social Sciences from the Instituto Libre de Filosofía and the Instituto Tecnológico y de Estudios Superiores (ITESO) in Guadalajara, Jalisco. Graduate in Theology from the Colegio de Estudios Teológicos in Mexico City. He holds a master in Sociology from the Universidad Iberoamericana, Mexico City. From 1990 to 1994 was the founder and director of the Movement to Support Working and Street Children (MATRACA), A.C., in the city of Jalapa. From 1994 to 1998 he was Director of the Miguel Agustín Pro Juárez Human Rights Center, A.C. From July 1998 to January 2002, he was the rector of the Instituto Tecnológico y de Estudios Superiores de Occidente (Universidad ITESO) in Guadalajara, Jal. The Rector was also a member of the International Council on Human Rights Policy, based in Geneva, Switzerland, between October 2000 and May 2012.

From January 2002 to May 2008 he was Assistant of Education of the Mexican Province of the Society of Jesus, responsible for the educational work of the Order in Mexico. From June 2008 to July 2013 he was rector of the Universidad Iberoamericana Puebla. From June 2014 he is rector of the Universidad Iberoamericana Ciudad de México. Mr. Fernández is also the author of several books.