Response of Government of Japan to questionnaire on women’s and girls’ sexual and reproductive health and rights in situations of crisis

Concept/definition of crisis

1. Please provide information on the legal and policy framework used by your State to manage situations of crisis and on how the concept of “crisis” has been defined or framed.
   It is not possible to provide information at the current time.

2. Please list the type of situations that would fit the concept of “crisis” in your State and indicate what situations are excluded.
   It is not possible to provide information at the current time.

3. What institutional mechanisms are in place for managing a crisis and how are priorities determined?
   It is not possible to provide information at the current time.

Challenges and good practices

4. Please highlight any challenges faced in the provision of SRH services and good practices in ensuring women’s and girls’ SRHR in situations of crisis, including, for example, measures concerning timely access to the following types of services and aspects of care:
   a. Access to non-biased and scientifically accurate information about sexual and reproductive health matters and services;
   b. Access to medical professionals and health service providers, including traditional birth attendants, with adequate provision for their training and safety including personal protective equipment;
   c. Access to essential medicines as prescribed by the WHO, equipment and technologies essential for the quality provision of sexual and reproductive health services;
   d. Prevention of HIV transmission, post-exposure prophylaxis and treatment for HIV/AIDS as well as the prevention and treatment of sexually transmissible infections;
   e. Pregnancy-related health services, including pre- and post-natal care, assistance during childbirth, and emergency obstetric care;
   f. The full range of modern contraceptive information and services, including emergency contraception, as well as family planning information and services related to the number, timing and spacing of pregnancies and infertility treatments;
   g. Safe abortion services including surgical and non-surgical methods of termination of pregnancy and humane post-abortion care, regardless of the legal status of abortion;
   h. Treatment for pregnancy-related morbidities such as obstetric fistula and uterine prolapse, among others;
   i. Screenings and treatment for reproductive cancers;
   j. Menstrual hygiene products, menstrual pain management and menstrual regulation;
   k. Prevention, investigation and punishment of all forms of gender-based violence, and access to timely and comprehensive medical interventions, mental health care, and psychosocial support for victims and survivors;
   l. Measures to prevent and prohibit practices such as female genital mutilation and child, early and forced marriage;
   m. Legal and policy safeguards against abuses and delays in the provision of SRH services for example in relation to confidentiality, referrals, informed consent, conscientious objection, and third party consent requirements;
   n. The affordability of SRH services especially for those in situations of vulnerability; and
o. Other pertinent information that may affect the availability accessibility, affordability, acceptability and quality of SRH services and information. Experiences of crisis

5. Please list the situations of crisis experienced by your State in the last five years. Declaration of state of emergency in response to COVID-19 (April, 2020)

6. What was the impact of those crises on women and girls? Please provide information in particular on the following aspects:
   a. Which groups of women and girls were most affected and how, taking into account different factors, such as age, geographic location (including urban and rural areas), ethnic and social origin, disability, marital status, migratory status, citizenship status or other status?
   b. What was the impact on their SRHR? Were any specific risk factors and needs identified? Do you have data and/or qualitative information disaggregated by the factors listed under question 6(a)? If not, please explain why.
   c. What were the main obstacles encountered by the State, if any, in identifying and addressing the impact of the crisis on women’s and girls’ SRHR?
   d. What measures were adopted during and after the crisis to ensure women and girls’ access to sexual and reproductive health services? Please indicate which SRHR services are recognized as essential services in the health policy or laws of your State and are funded through the health system. What steps were taken to ensure the continuity of services and access during the crisis?
   e. What other protocols or systems were put in place to prevent adverse reproductive and sexual health outcomes due to the common risks triggered by crisis including, for example, gender-based violence and child marriage? Were any special measures adopted for specific groups of women and girls?
   f. Were women’s rights organizations involved in the needs and impact assessments and the recovery policies? If not, please indicate why.
   g. Which actors or institutions played a role in the provision of emergency responses? Please describe their role and explain what roles were played, if any, by national women’s rights or human rights mechanisms, or other similar bodies as well as civil society organisations.
   h. How were the emergency responses funded and to what extent did they rely on foreign aid or assistance, if any? Please also indicate how in your State adequate financing of women’s sexual and reproductive health is ensured more generally on an ongoing basis.
   i. What obstacles have civil society organisations encountered in their efforts to deliver sexual and reproductive services?

It is not possible to provide information at the current time as the crisis remains ongoing.

7. Could you identify any lessons learned? Please indicate if and how these lessons have been applied in preparedness strategies or in subsequent situations of crisis.

It is not possible to provide information at the current time as the crisis remains ongoing.

8. If your State has humanitarian aid programmes, please indicate whether SRHR are explicitly covered in the humanitarian aid strategy and how priorities on SRHR are set.

It is not possible to provide information at the current time.

1 The expression women’s rights organizations should be understood as encompassing organizations of women of different ages, backgrounds and identities.
9. Please indicate the main challenges, if any, encountered by women and girls to access justice and obtain reparations for violations of their SRHR, including any procedural barriers, and the types of assistance available to access legal and other remedies. Please also indicate the groups of women and girls most affected. Where applicable, please indicate the role played by a national truth and reconciliation commission (or a similar body) in ensuring the recognition of human rights violations in relation to women’s and girls’ SRHR and reparations.

It is not possible to provide information at the current time.

Preparedness, recovery and resilience

10. Is there any preparedness or risk management strategy/plan/policy in your State? If so, please provide information on the following aspects:
   a. To what crisis does it apply? What situations are excluded?
   b. Does it contain a definition of crisis? If so, please indicate the definition used.
   c. Does it include measures concerning women and girls’ SRHR? If so, please describe the measures included and any special measures envisaged and/or adopted for specific groups of women and girls concerning both preparedness and recovery.
   d. How were the risks related to women and girls’ sexual and reproductive health and rights, in urban and rural areas, identified and assessed?
   e. Were women’s rights organizations involved in: i) the development of the strategy/plan/policy; ii) assessment of the risks concerning SRHR; iii) the design of the measures implemented; and iv) the monitoring of the strategy/plan/policy? Please indicate the steps taken to ensure their participation and to include a gender-perspective in crisis preparedness, management and recovery.
   f. Please indicate if the strategy/plan/policy has undergone any assessments to date. If so, what were the main findings and recommendations concerning women’s and girls’ SRHR?

In regard to point e., please refer to Section 1-10, pages 92–94, of the following report for your information: “White Paper Disaster Management in Japan 2019” (http://www.bousai.go.jp/kaigirep/hakusho/pdf/R1_hakusho_english.pdf) Cabinet Office, Government of Japan, 2019
