

Evaluation of the first phase (2005 - 2009) of the World Programme for Human Rights Education (WPHRE)

GUIDANCE AND QUESTIONNAIRE FOR GOVERNMENTS

The purpose of this questionnaire is to provide Member States with guidance for the preparation of national evaluation reports on the national implementation of the first phase of the World Programme for Human Rights Education.

I. GUIDANCE

1. Introduction – The World Programme for Human Rights Education

The United Nations General Assembly, in resolution 59/113A of 10 December 2004, proclaimed the World Programme for Human Rights Education (2005-ongoing) as a global initiative structured in consecutive phases, in order to advance the implementation of human rights education programmes in all sectors. The first phase of the World Programme covers the period 2005-2009<sup>1</sup> and focuses on integrating human rights education in primary and secondary school systems.

The General Assembly, in resolution 59/113B of 14 July 2005, adopted the revised draft Plan of Action<sup>2</sup> for the first phase of the World Programme, which proposes a concrete strategy and practical ideas for implementing human rights education nationally. Resolution 59/113B, inter alia, encouraged “all States to develop initiatives within the World Programme and, in particular, to implement, within their capabilities, the Plan of Action” (para. 2) and appealed to “relevant organs, bodies or agencies of the United Nations system, as well as all other international and regional intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations, within their respective mandates, to promote and technically assist, when requested, the national implementation of the Plan of Action” (para. 4).

2. Background to the evaluation

The evaluation of the first phase of the World Programme for Human Rights Education is mandated both by the General Assembly and by the Human Rights Council as outlined below. The Plan of Action adopted for the first phase of the World Programme by all United Nations Member States through the General Assembly provides:

49. At the conclusion of the first phase (2005-2007) of the World Programme, each country will undertake an evaluation of actions implemented under this plan of action. The evaluation will take into consideration progress made in a number of areas, such as legal frameworks and policies, curricula, teaching and learning processes and tools, revision of

<sup>1</sup> Although the first phase was initially launched for three years, until 2007, the Human Rights Council subsequently decided, in its resolution 6/24 (28 September 2007) to extend the first phase of the World Programme by two more years until the end of 2009.

textbooks, teacher training, improvement of the school environment, etc. The Member States will be called upon to provide their final national evaluation report to the United Nations inter-agency coordinating committee.

51. The inter-agency coordinating committee will prepare a final evaluation report based on national evaluation reports, in cooperation with relevant international, regional and non-governmental organizations. The report will be submitted to the General Assembly at its sixty-third session (2008).

The Human Rights Council in resolution 12/4 of 1 October 2009:

6. Reminds Member States of the need to prepare and submit their national evaluation reports on the first phase of the World Programme to the United Nations Inter-Agency Coordinating Committee on Human Rights Education in the School System by early 2010; and

7. Requests the Coordinating Committee to submit a final evaluation report of the implementation of the first phase of the World Programme, based on national evaluation reports, in cooperation with relevant international, regional and non-governmental organizations, to the General Assembly at its sixty-fifth session (autumn 2010).

This evaluation will be carried out by the United Nations Inter-Agency Coordinating Committee on Human Rights Education in the School System (UNIACC), for which the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) provides the secretariat.<sup>3</sup>

3. Content of evaluation

The aforementioned Plan of Action defines human rights education and outlines key actions to be undertaken by ministries of education and other school and civil society actors working in partnership to integrate human rights education effectively in the primary and secondary school systems. The UNIACC evaluation will therefore be based on national reporting on key elements drawn from the Plan of Action, namely the five main components of human rights education in the primary and secondary school systems, in the context of the minimum action which Member States are encouraged to undertake during the first phase of the World Programme.

3.1 Components of human rights education in the primary and secondary school systems

Human rights education promotes a rights-based approach to education. The Plan of Action provides at paragraph 18:

Therefore, human rights education in the primary and secondary school systems includes:

- (a) Policies — developing in a participatory way and adopting coherent educational policies, legislation and strategies that are human rights-based, including curriculum improvement and training policies for teachers and other educational personnel;*

<sup>3</sup> UNIACC was established in September 2006, as mandated by the Plan of Action, to facilitate coordinated United Nations support to the national integration of human rights education in national school systems. The Inter-Agency Committee, for which OHCHR provides the Secretariat, is composed of 12 UN system entities and affiliated organizations, namely: ILO, OHCHR, UNAIDS, UNDG, UNDP, UNDP, UNDP, UNESCO, UNFPA, UNHCR, UNICEF, UNRWA, and the World Bank. The Council of Europe has participated as an observer.

- (b) Policy implementation — planning the implementation of the abovementioned educational policies by taking appropriate organizational measures and by facilitating the involvement of all stakeholders;
- (c) Learning environment — the school environment itself respects and promotes human rights and fundamental freedoms. It provides the opportunity for all school actors (students, teachers, staff and administrators and parents) to practice human rights through real-life activities. It enables children to express their views freely and to participate in school life;
- (d) Teaching and learning — all teaching and learning processes and tools are rights-based (for instance, the content and objectives of the curriculum, participatory and democratic practices and methodologies, appropriate materials including the review and revision of existing textbooks, etc.);
- (e) Education and professional development of teachers and other personnel — providing the teaching profession and school leadership, through pre- and in-service training, with the necessary knowledge, understanding, skills and competencies to facilitate the learning and practice of human rights in schools, as well as with appropriate working conditions and status.

A detailed description of the five components and related courses of action, to serve as a reference tool, is provided in the appendix.

3.2 Minimum action required by States

Paragraph 26 of the Plan of Action on “Stages of the implementation strategy” calls for analysis of the current situation of human rights education in the school system (stage 1); setting priorities and developing a national implementation strategy (stage 2); implementing and monitoring (stage 3); and evaluating (stage 4).

Paragraph 27 of the Plan of Action provides that Member States are encouraged to undertake as minimum action during the first phase (2005-2007) of the World Programme the following:

- (a) An analysis of the current situation of human rights education in the school system (stage 1);*
- (b) Setting of priorities and the development of the national implementation strategy (stage 2);*
- (c) The initial implementation of planned activities.*

II. QUESTIONNAIRE FOR GOVERNMENTS

The questionnaire below to be completed by Governments contains questions that should be addressed in Member States' national reports. Please mark the specific answers with corresponding numbers of the questions. In addition to the questionnaire, supplementary information may also be provided as additional attachments to your report.<sup>4</sup> Governments are strongly encouraged to involve National Human Rights Institutions and civil society in the preparation of their reports. Please return the completed questionnaire and any other additional information to the Methodology, Education and Training Section at the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights (by fax: +41 22 917 9008 or by email: registry@ohchr.org ; with copy to wphre@ohchr.org) no later than 31 March 2010. Submissions by email are preferred, but any materials not available electronically may be posted to OHCHR, attn: METS – WPHRE, Palais des Nations, 8-14 Avenue de la Paix, CH-1211 Geneva 10, Switzerland. Replies received by the deadline will be reflected in the evaluation report to be submitted to the UN General Assembly 65th session and may also be uploaded on OHCHR's website for the World Programme.

Part 2: COMPONENTS OF HUMAN RIGHTS EDUCATION IN SCHOOLS

A. Educational policies<sup>5</sup> and policy implementation

10. Do education laws, education policies and education policy objectives exist which explicitly refer to the following?<sup>6</sup>

- |  | Yes                          | No                |
|--|-------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| ▪ Human rights                         | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| ▪ The right to education               | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| ▪ A rights-based approach to education | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| ▪ Human rights education               | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |

You may elaborate further if you wish:

11. Is human rights education incorporated in national plans and strategies including those listed below where they exist?<sup>7</sup>

- |   | Yes                          | No                | Doesn't exist                |
|---|-------------------------------------|--------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| ▪ National human rights plans   | <input type="checkbox"/>            | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| ▪ National plans of action against racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance    | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/>            |
| ▪ National poverty reduction strategies and other development plans                                     | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/>            |
| ▪ National sectoral plans for primary and secondary education   | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/>            |
| ▪ National plans for Education for All (EFA)  | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/>            |
| ▪ National policy frameworks as part of the Decade on Education for Sustainable Development (2005-2014) | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/>            |

If yes to any of the above, please elaborate.

The Education Development Master Plan outlined the national sectoral plans for primary and secondary education as well as the strategies for achieving the goals of the EFA.

12. Has a national implementation strategy been developed to implement any human rights education policy objective?<sup>8</sup>

The implementation of the human rights education policy objective is encompassed in the national curriculum and addressed in the Education Development Master Plan.

<sup>5</sup> Education policies according to the Plan of Action include legislation, plans of action, curricula and training policies.

If yes, have young people/learners been involved in both developing the national implementation strategy and in its implementation?

Input from learners are obtained from teachers, parents and other stakeholders.

Has the strategy been published and disseminated? If yes, please share a copy or refer to a website address if available online.

The strategies are outlined in the syllabuses, published and disseminated to schools.

13. Is human rights education present in the national curriculum and educational standards?<sup>9</sup> If yes, please explain its status (e.g. obligatory or optional, subject-based or cross-curricular?).

The human rights education is present in the national curriculum and educational standards. It is compulsory subject at the primary and lower secondary level. It is subject-based such as Civics and Citizenship Education, Moral Education, Islamic Education and cross-curricular.

14. Please state whether guidelines exist for writing or revising textbooks that reflect human rights principles?<sup>10</sup>

Guideline exist for writing or revising textbooks reflecting human rights principles.

Have textbooks been prepared according to these guidelines?

Textbooks need to adhere to these guidelines.

15. Please refer to any national or sub-national policies that promote a human rights-based approach to school governance, management, discipline procedures, inclusion policies and other regulations and practices affecting the school culture and access to education.<sup>11</sup>

Policies that promote a human-rights based approach to education include the National Philosophy of Education, the Education Act 1996, Special education policy, Teacher Education Policy and the objectives of the Education Development Plan 2001-2010 and 2006-2010.

16. Is there a comprehensive training policy on human rights education for teachers and other educational personnel in schools?<sup>12</sup>

Teachers undergoing training are imbued with human rights perspectives and training is provided based on their specialized areas. School heads, likewise, receive similar human-rights approach to training.

B. Learning environment

17. Are human rights integrated into the learning environments of schools including school governance and management?<sup>13</sup> Please mark on a scale from 1 to 5 (1 = Yes, comprehensively, 5 = Not at all):

Yes, comprehensively    1   2   3   4   5    Not at all

18. Do practices not defined as human rights education exist in your country which reflect the principles of the rights-based approach to education, such as peace education, citizenship and values education, multicultural education, global education, education for tolerance or education for sustainable development?<sup>14</sup> If yes, please explain.

These practices exist in the curriculum. An example is the Civic and Citizenship Education, Moral and Islamic Education.

19. Do opportunities exist in schools for students to express themselves freely, to have responsibility, to participate in decision making (in accordance with their age and evolving capacity) and to organize for their own interests?<sup>15</sup> Please mark on a scale from 1 to 5 (1 = Comprehensive opportunities exist, 5 = Not at all):

Comprehensive opportunities exist    1   2   3   4   5    Not at all

- To express themselves
- To have responsibility
- To participate in decision making
- To organize for their own interests

These have been in practice for a very long time in the education system. The National Philosophy of Education envisaged the outcome of the education system as producing holistic and well-balanced individuals.

20. Are there interactions between schools, local government, civil society and the wider community facilitating awareness of children's rights and the key principles of human rights education?<sup>16</sup> Please mark on a scale from 1 to 5 (1 = Comprehensive interactions take place, 5 = Not at all):

26. Do teacher guides, manuals, textbooks, and other teaching and learning materials in primary and secondary education conform with human rights principles?<sup>24</sup> Please mark on a scale from 1 to 5 (1 = Yes, comprehensively, 5 = Not at all):

Yes, comprehensively    1   2   3   4   5    Not at all

Are materials not produced by your Government being used in schools? If so, who produced them?

Yes, and the materials need to be approved by the government.

D. Training of school personnel

27. Is human rights education included in the following?

	Yes	No
▪ Pre-service teacher training	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
▪ In-service teacher training	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
▪ Head teacher training <sup>25</sup>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Is participation voluntary or mandatory?

Mandatory

How many hours are offered?

Varies according to the training.

28. To what extent is learning, good practice, research and materials collected and made available to educators in human rights education?<sup>26</sup>

Some of the available materials, good practice and research are disseminated and shared through seminar, workshops and meetings.

29. To what extent do recruitment, appraisal and promotion policies for teachers, headmasters and school inspectors reflect human rights principles?<sup>27</sup>

The practices are based mainly on merit i.e. performance and achievement.

30. How are human rights trainings for teachers assessed?<sup>28</sup>

Human rights training for teachers are assessed through academic examinations and during practical training.

Part 3: CHALLENGES AND GENERAL COMMENTS

31. To what extent has the Plan of Action for the WPHRE 1st Phase contributed to improving the integration of human rights education into schools systems?

The Plan of Action for the WPHRE 1st Phase has contributed considerably to improving the integration of human rights education into schools system for example, by ensuring that the teaching and learning employ curriculum content and objectives that are rights-based, the methodologies are democratic and the materials are aligned with human rights values.

32. Please indicate the main obstacles to the implementation of the Plan of Action to the 1st Phase of the World Programme in your country on a scale from 1 to 5 (1 = No obstacle, 5 = Major obstacle):

No obstacle   1   2   3   4   5   Major obstacle

- Lack of awareness of WPHRE at central government level
- Lack of awareness of WPHRE at local government level
- Lack of interest in WPHRE at central government level
- Lack of interest in WPHRE at local government level
- Teachers do not have sufficient training
- Insufficient tools available to implement the programme
- Insufficient financial resources to implement the programme
- Other (please specify):

Coordination which involves monitoring and evaluation is still premature at this stage.

33. Please indicate any actions undertaken by your country to ensure the World Programme is known amongst (1) education officials, (2) teachers and (3) young people.

The information on WPHRE has been made known to the education officials, teachers and young people since the elements on human rights education has been incorporated in both our national curriculum and Education Development Master Plan (EDMP).
