Special Rapporteur on the right to food	Report presented to the 74th session of the UNGA in 2019 on the SDGs as a potentially transformative tool to advance the realization of the right to food, as well as other economic, social and cultural rights, explaining that guaranteeing the right to adequate quality and quantity as part of the right to food requires looking beyond productivism under SDG 2 and recognizing positive links to land and ocean ecosystem health (SDGs 14 and 15) and that the SDG framework promotes a view of gender equality that is too limiting, failing to mention women in certain SDGs, such as SDG 14 ( A/74/164 ).
	Report presented to the 40th session of the HRC in 2019 on fishery workers' rights, stating small-scale fisheries are integral to, among other things, sustainable development consistent with SDG 14 and calling on States to implement their commitments under SDG 14 ( A/HRC/40/56 ).

Independent Expert on human rights and international solidarity	Report presented to the 41st session of the HRC in 2019 on the country visit to Sweden from 23 to 27 April 2018, concluding that the active participation of Malmö and Stockholm in cooperation partnerships to promote SDG 14 contribute to the Swedish effort and commitment to promote a clean and sustainable environment and advocate for its protection and are "clear expressions of human rights-based international solidarity or of efforts to advance it" ( A/HRC/41/44/Add.1 ).

	Report presented to the 69th session of the UNGA in 2014 providing a proposed draft declaration on the right to international solidarity focusing on three areas of concern relevant to the yet to be adopted SDGs, noting that good governance is a precondition preventing and reducing of marine pollution of all kinds as called for by proposed Target 14.1 ( A/69/366 ).
