1. Albania is deeply committed to the United Nations Universal Periodic Review (UPR), one of the most accomplished mechanisms to ensure a comprehensive review of each State's compliance with its international human rights obligations. It demonstrates the essential role of multilateralism and the United Nations in upholding international law, human dignity and peace. As an elected member of the Human Rights Council for the period 2024–2026, Albania will remain committed to ensuring that the UPR is a mechanism that produces concrete results for the States under review as well as for the States that make recommendations.
