It is time for easy access language and targeting those communities affected by human rights abuses such as those with psychosocial disabilities, distress, disabled, refugees, Indigenous, culturally and linguistically diverse, gender and sexually diverse and other disenfranchised groups.

Best wishes,
Ailsa Rayner

I acknowledge those giants amongst us and those we have lost, upon whose shoulders we stand seeking to reclaim our human rights as citizens