

Pledge submitted by the Coordination Committee of Special Procedures to the Human Rights
75 Secretariat
December 2023

Original language of submission: English

Type of pledge: Single (by one state/actor)

Pledging entity: Coordination Committee of Special Procedures

Location: Switzerland

The Coordination Committee commits to:

PLEDGE NUMBER 1: Contribute to revitalising a worldwide consensus on human rights and strengthen coordination among special procedures and cooperation with other human rights mechanisms to promote the realisation of all human rights for everyone in all circumstances, building on the range of issues covered by special procedures and the convening power of the experts composing it.

Expected deadline within which pledge will be realised: Jun 14, 2024

PLEDGE NUMBER 2: Stand up for human rights without any fear or favour, explore further the human rights impact of emerging issues and situations and engage with all actors to ensure those dedicating their life for human rights do not face reprisals or personal attacks for doing so.

Expected deadline within which pledge will be realised: Jun 14, 2024

PLEDGE NUMBER 3: Bolster the human rights ecosystem by maximising the potential of special procedures to bring human rights at the center of development, prevention and peace and security by facilitating the engagement of mandate holders with various UN processes and bodies and urging all concerned to ensure that human rights remain central to all policy and decision making, including the Summit of the Future, and are supported by the necessary resources.

Expected deadline within which pledge will be realised: Jun 14, 2024
