

Tuesday 12 December: Leaders' Segment Schedule Overview:

TIME (GVA)	EVENT
9:00-9:30	Welcome and Opening Remarks
9:30-11:00	Roundtable 1 Theme: The Future of Human Rights and Digital Technologies
11:00-12:30	Roundtable 2 Theme: The Future of Human Rights and Peace and Security
12:30-14:00	Lunch discussion for Heads of State or Government
14:00-15:30	Roundtable 3 Theme: The Future of Human Rights, Climate and the Environment
15:30-17:00	Roundtable 4 Theme: The Future of Human Rights, Development and the Economy
17:00-18:00	Plenary Session and Concluding Remarks

Each roundtable will convene Heads of State or Government, high level dignitaries and a multi-stakeholder group. A think-piece will be shared with every participant ahead of time as a basis for discussion. Throughout the day, there will be side events in virtual rooms and in the regional hubs.

HUMAN RIGHTS 75 HIGH-LEVEL EVENT 10-11-12 DECEMBER 2023

Preliminary programme

The Human Rights 75 – High-level event will:

- lead to concrete change and progress through pledging events
- strengthen the worldwide consensus on the universality and indivisibility of human rights
- lead to a vision for Human Rights for the next 25 years and feed the Summit of the Future
- highlight 75 years of achievements, as well as the work done this year
- and create a wave of public support for human rights.

Format

Hybrid event with participation across time zones and from different localities to build a universal movement.

Geneva hub - venue: Room XX – Palais des Nations.

Three regional hubs connected and participating: Panama, Nairobi and Bangkok.

And the possibility to follow the debates remotely thanks to our virtual human rights conference center.

Sunday 10 December – People’s movement of solidarity and support to human rights

On Human Rights Day, there will be candlelight concerts and artistic moments in many cities and villages

Monday 11 December Schedule Overview:

TIME (GVA)	EVENT (11 DECEMBER)
9:00-10:30	Opening panel: Universality and indivisibility of human rights
10:30-12:00	Multi-Stakeholder Dialogue Feedback and reflections on the past months from each stakeholder group, linking to the goals of Human Rights 75. Voices and statements by: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Young people• Civil society• Mayors• Parliamentarians• The business community• National human rights institutions• Regional human rights mechanisms
12:00-13:00	Pledging Tree Session 1 (by Heads of Delegations)

13:30-15:00

Lunchtime panel: Bolstering the human rights ecosystem

Reflections on how to strengthen the international and regional human rights system and make it fit for purpose.

15:00-16:00

Pledging Tree Session 2 (by Heads of Delegation)

16:00-17:00

Generation Mix

Inter-generational dialogues between for example:

- Students and Human Rights Defenders
- Mayors and artists
- Children/young people and ministers.

Possible dialogues around:

- Digital and human rights
- Power and human rights
- The importance of civic space.

17:00-18:00

You have the floor

human rights experts will address opportunities and challenges around a theme selected by the public

Throughout the day, there will be side events in virtual rooms and in the regional hubs.